OVERLAND PRE-PAID LETTERS.

NOTICE.—With reference to the system of optional pre-payment of British Postage in India, upon Letters for places within the United Kingdom of Great Britain, which will come into operation on the 1st of the ensuing month of March, the following rates of Postage will be levied, namely,

Not exceeding $\frac{1}{2}$ an ounce, 8 Annas,... (1 Shilling)
 Above $\frac{1}{2}$, and not exceeding 1 ounce,
 1 Rupee, ... (2 Shillings)
 Above 1, and not exceeding 2 ounces,
 2 Rupees, ... (4 Shillings)
 Above 2, and not exceeding 3 ounces,
 3 Rupees, ... (6 Shillings)
 And so on, increasing 1 Rupee, ... (2 Shillings)
 for every additional ounce, or fraction of the ounce.

As 5 ounces is the nearest integral of English weight to 12 Tolas, the maximum weight allowed for transmission by Dawk, it is indispensable that letters be not allowed to exceed that weight, to prevent the inconvenience of their being refused at the Post Office.

The option of pre-paying the British Postage is exclusively, limited to Letters transmitted in the Mails sent via Southampton, and such letters must bear the following superscription for the guidance of the Post Office Receivers, viz.

“BRITISH POSTAGE PRE-PAID,
 “Via Southampton.”

Letters not for places, within the United Kingdom of Great Britain, or which may not require to pass through the English Post Office, to their ulterior destinations, will, as heretofore, be subject to Foreign Steamer, or Red Sea Postage, precisely at the same rates as those fixed for the levy of British pre-paid Postage.

British and Foreign Steamer, or Red Sea Postages, are exclusive of the India ordinary Inland Postage.

It is strongly recommended, both for the convenience of the individuals bringing the letters, and of the Receivers at the Post Office, that Letters intended to be pre-paid should be accompanied by separate receipts, or be entered separately from other descriptions of letters in the Sender's Dawk Receipt Books.

The option of pre-paying the British Postage is exclusively, limited to Letters transmitted in the Mails sent via Southampton, and such letters must bear the following superscription for the guidance of the Post Office Receivers, viz.

"BRITISH POSTAGE PRE-PAID, "Via Southampton."

Letters not for places, within the United Kingdom of Great Britain, or which may not require to pass through the English Post Office, to their ulterior destinations, will, as heretofore, be subject to Foreign Steamer, or Red Sea Postage, precisely at the same rates as those fixed for the levy of British pre-paid Postage.

British and Foreign Steamer, or Red Sea Postages, are exclusive of the India ordinary Inland Postage.

It is strongly recommended, both for the convenience of the individuals bringing the letters, and of the Receivers at the Post Office, that Letters intended to be pre-paid should be accompanied by separate receipts, or be entered separately from other descriptions of letters in the Sender's Dawk Receipt Books.

MADRAS MARINE BOARD OFFICE,

5TH FEBRUARY, 1844.

Notice is hereby given, that a Light is exhibited from the Flag Staff at Cochin, from sunset to sunrise. The height of the Light when exhibited from the Mast-head is 114 feet above the Level of the Sea, but when the Top Mast is struck (during the South West Monsoon,) the Light is then 62 feet above the Level of the Sea—Vessels coming to an anchor at night, should bring the Light to bear E. by N. Good anchorage is found in from 5 to 4½ fathoms water, but, during the South West Monsoon Vessels should not anchor in less than 6 fathoms as there is then a heavy Sea rolling in on the Coast.

By order of the Marine Board,

OVERLAND PRE-PAID LETTERS.

NOTICE.—With reference to the system of optional pre-payment of British Postage in India, upon Letters for places within the United Kingdom of Great Britain, which will come into operation on the 1st of the ensuing month of March, the following rates of Postage will be levied, namely,

Not exceeding $\frac{1}{2}$ an ounce, 8 Annas,... (1 Shilling)
Above $\frac{1}{2}$, and not exceeding 1 ounce,
1 Rupee, ... (2 Shillings)
Above 1, and not exceeding 2 ounces,
2 Rupees, ... (4 Shillings)
Above 2, and not exceeding 3 ounces,
3 Rupees, ... (6 Shillings)
And so on, increasing 1 Rupee, ... (2 Shillings)
for every additional ounce, or fraction of the ounce.

As 5 ounces is the nearest integral of English weight to 12 Tolas, the maximum weight allowed for transmission by Dawk, it is indispensable that letters be not allowed to exceed that weight, to prevent the inconvenience of their being refused at the Post Office.

The option of pre-paying the British Postage is exclusively, limited to Letters transmitted in the Mails sent via Southampton, and such letters must bear the following superscription for the guidance of the Post Office Receivers, viz.

“BRITISH POSTAGE PRE-PAID,
“Via Southampton.”

Letters not for places, within the United Kingdom of Great Britain, or which may not require to pass through the English Post Office, to their ulterior destinations, will, as heretofore, be subject to Foreign Steamer, or Red Sea Postage, precisely at the same rates as those fixed for the levy of British pre-paid Postage.

British and Foreign Steamer, or Red Sea Postages, are exclusive of the India ordinary Inland Postage.

It is strongly recommended, both for the convenience of the individuals bringing the letters, and of the Receivers at the Post Office, that Letters intended to be pre-paid should be accompanied by separate receipts, or be entered separately from other descriptions of letters in the Sender's Dawk Receipt Books.

N. B.—These Rules, until further orders, are to apply only, to letters forwarded via Bombay, not to letters transmitted hence by the Steamers Ben-tinck and Hindostan.

Deputy Posty Master.

"As British weights may not be generally available to the Public, for regulating the weight of their correspondence, the following scheme for using Coins of the Indian Currency, for that purpose, will be found to afford a very close approximation to ounce and half ounce weights.

THE 10TH FEBRUARY, 1844.

RESOLUTION.

1st. It having been found necessary to revise the Rules published under date October 17th last, for giving effect to the Provisions of Act XIV. 1843, the following Rules are now promulgated in suppression of them, and will henceforward have the force of Law, as declared by Section III. of the above Act.

Rules for giving effect to the Provisions of ACT XIV. 1843.

SECTION I.

CUSTOMS LINES AND JURISDICTION.

RULE I. The lines hereinafter specified shall be established for levying the Duties authorized by Act XIV. 1843.

RULE II. The North-west Frontier line shall commence in the Himalaya range of Mountains on the Jumna, and shall run in the direction of that river till it reaches the boundary between the Banda and Allahabad Districts, whence it shall run in the direction of the Southern Frontier of the Allahabad and Mirzapoor Districts, till it meets the River Soane and there it shall terminate.

RULE III. Custom House Jurisdiction shall extend on the left bank of the Jumna from its entering British Territory in the Himalayas, to within two miles of the Chief Police Station of Shamlee, for a distance of five miles from the bank of the river, and on the right bank of the Jumna, from the point where it enters British Territory in the Himalaya range, to the boundary of the Banda and Allahabad Districts for a distance of 15 miles from the bank or over all British Territory within that space; and along the Frontier of the Allahabad and Mirzapoor Districts for the distance of 15 miles North and East of the Frontier, save and except that the Cities and Marts of Dehlee, Bindrabun, Muttra and Agra, shall be excluded from Customs Jurisdiction, the space so excluded being a circle of two miles from the Cotwalee or Chief Police Station of each Town. Provided that where these tracts are so excluded, the breadth of the line be extended in a correspondent measure to the Westward and Southward, so that in no place the breadth be less than 15 miles, or include all British Territory within that space.

RULE IV. The Hurrianah line shall branch off from the North-western Frontier line at Bullabgurb, and skirting the Northern boundary of the Jhujjur Territory, shall pass by Hansee, Hissar and Sirsa, and beyond that point till it reaches the extreme limits of the British Territory at, or near, the Sutlej River; and along this line Customs Jurisdiction shall extend for a breadth of ten miles, or over all British Territory within that space. All Dutiable Articles crossing the Hurrianah line shall pay the full duty, save and except that Salt, intended for consumption to the West of the North-west Frontier shall only be liable to half duty on crossing this line. All imported articles which have paid full duty on crossing the Hurrianah line shall not be liable to any further duty on crossing the North-west Frontier line, and exported articles which have paid full duty on crossing the North-west Frontier line shall not be liable to any further duty on crossing the Hurrianah line.

RULE V. Articles brought from the Southward and Westward within Customs Jurisdiction upon either of the above lines shall be held to be imported, save and except in the case of Sugar, the produce of a British province, as provided hereafter in Rule XXXVII. Articles brought from the Northward and Eastward within Customs Jurisdiction upon any of the above lines shall be held to be exported.

RULE VI. A line, for the levy of a duty on Salt only, shall proceed from the fortress of Allahabad, due South to the Rewah Frontier, and due North, to the Oude Frontier, and thence along the Western and Eastern boundaries of the Oude State, till it reaches the Nepal Frontier, on either side, and there it will terminate. Customs Jurisdiction shall extend East of the line running due South and North from Allahabad for a breadth of 10 miles, and where the line skirts the Oude Frontier for a distance of 10 miles from that Frontier.

RULE VII. All Salt passing out of the Oude Territory across this line, shall be held to be imported, and shall be liable to the duty of Two Rupees per maund, and all Salt passing to the Eastward of Allahabad shall be held liable to the further duty of One Rupee per maund, imposed by Section 2, Act XIV. 1843.

RULE VIII. The said Customs Jurisdiction shall not include the Ganges or Jumnah River, so as in any way to interrupt the free navigation thereof, all Customs interference with the River borne trade being hereby prohibited, further than may be required at or near Allahabad for the protection of the special further duty on Salt.

SECTION II.

CUSTOMS CHOKEES OPEN AND CLOSED.

RULE IX. Custom House Chokees may be established at any points within Customs Jurisdiction for the regulation of the lawful traffic, and for the suppression of contraband traffic. The Chokees shall be either open or closed, and shall be disposed in single continuous lines, at such intervals, as may be necessary. The open Chokees shall be established on the chief roads intersecting each line for the passing of such Dutiable Articles as shall have paid the prescribed duty. The closed Chokees shall be entirely of a preventive nature and shall be established to prevent the importation of Sagar from Foreign Territories, and the passing of Dutiable Articles, although accompanied by Rowannahs.

RULE X. A list of the open Chokees for passing Dutiable Articles, within each Custom House Jurisdiction, shall be prepared and printed in the English, Persian, Nagree and Mahajunnec languages, and kept in a convenient place for public reference, in each open Chokee, and at the Tuhseeldarrees and Thannahs adjacent thereto, and in the Office of the Collector, and Collector of Customs of the District.

SECTION III.

Custom Houses and Custom House Officers.

RULE XI. Custom Houses for entering the exports and imports, and for receiving the duties authorized by the Act, shall be established at Sirsa, Hansee, Dehlee, Kurnaul, Ilorah, Agra, Calpee, Rajapoor, Allahabad and Mirzapoor. The first six, forming the 1st or Dehlee Division of Customs, and the last four, the 2d or Mirzapoor Division of Customs.

RULE XII. The Superior Officers of the Department charged with the collection of Duties, granting of Rowannahs, and superintending the Preventive Establishment, shall be denominated Collectors, Deputy Collectors, and Assistant Collectors. The Deputy Collectors and Assistant Collectors shall be subordinate to the Collectors, but shall be competent to perform all acts which may legally be performed by the Collector. There shall be one Collector, in each Division, vested with the general superintendence and also competent to take charge of any Custom House; and there shall be in charge of each Custom House, a Collector or Deputy Collector, or Assistant Collector.

RULE XIII. The Subordinate Officers who will constitute the Preventive Department shall be called Patrols, Assistant Patrols, Darogahs, Jemadars, and Chuprassees, and shall be stationed at such places along the line as may, from time to time, be found convenient. At all open Chokees there shall be stationed a Darogah or Jemadar, and a Mohurrir or Weighman.

SECTION IV.

Mode of collecting the Duty on Dutiable Articles when brought across the Line.

RULE XIV. No Dutiable Articles shall be brought across the line, unless covered by Rowannahs, in duplicate, of the Form [A] annexed to these Rules.

RULE XV. Persons desirous to obtain such Rowannahs for the passing of Dutiable Articles shall give in a written application at the nearest Custom House. The application shall specify—

The Name and Description of the Goods.

The description and quantity of carriage.

Total weight of Goods.

Rate of Duty per Maund and total amount of Duty.

The name of the Applicant.

By what Route or Chokee proceeding.

RULE XVI. A sufficient number of Officers, called Mooshriifs, shall be entertained at each Custom House; and on payment of the duty to the Treasurer and application for the Rowannah, it shall be the duty of one of these Officers to see that the Rowannah is duly and accurately prepared and delivered to the applicant, free of any further charge, or fee, whatever. Each Rowannah shall bear the signature of the Mooshriff by whom it has been prepared and delivered, and he shall be held responsible for its accuracy, and sufficiency, and early delivery.

RULE XVII. Rowannahs shall be current for three months, from the date of issue, and shall be of no effect whatever from and after the expiration of that period, excepting in the manner provided for hereafter in Section V.

RULE XVIII. Rowannahs, granted at any Custom House, shall cover Dutiable Articles in all Customs Jurisdiction, save and except, that Rowannahs certifying payment of the import duty on Salt shall not exempt Salt passing Eastward of Allahabad, from payment of the further duty.

RULE XIX. When Dutiable Articles covered by a duplicate Rowannah, are brought to an open Chokee the Rowannahs shall be delivered to the Officer at the Chokee, who, after comparing it with the goods, and ascertaining that it covers them, shall permit the goods to pass, at the same time dividing the two copies of the Rowannah through the bordered words in the middle, himself retaining the right hand or duplicate, and delivering the Original to the owner of the goods. The goods shall on no account be detained at the Chokee more than twenty-four hours unless for breach of Customs Rules.

RULE XX. The single Original Rowannah, of the Form A, shall be of no avail to cover Dutiable Articles, before they reach a line of Chokees and when brought to an open Chokee, save and except in the case of Dutiable Articles, intended to be brought across the Frontier lines North of Dehlee, after having passed the Hurrianah line, or the reverse. In this case the single Original Rowannah shall be considered as proof of payment of duty on the line first crossed. Special Rowannahs must be taken out from the Allahabad Custom House, after payment of the further duty, to cover Salt passing to the Eastward of that city.

RULE XXI. Rowannahs destroyed by fire or water shall not be renewed or granted in duplicate, excepting by order of the Collector of the Division on proof of destruction in the manner aforesaid.

RULE XXII. If the possessor of a Rowannah be desirous to divide the despatch of goods covered by the Rowannah, he shall, on application to the nearest Custom House, obtain as many partition of Uttrafee Rowannahs, of the Form B, as he may require, provided that a fee of two Annas be paid on each partition Rowannah so taken.

RULE XXIII. Persons wishing to export Cotton, or to bring half a mile of the line of Chokee, from the Northward and Eastward, shall make application to the Collector of Customs and shall obtain from him a Maafee Rowannah, that is, a free pass, in the Form C., annexed to these Rules: no fee shall be demanded for the preparation of such Rowannah, and it shall under no circumstances be current for more than one month from the date of issue.

RULE XXIV. Persons wishing to bring Salt within the Customs Jurisdiction from the Northward and Eastward, shall obtain a Maafee Rowannah of similar form, on payment of a fee of two Annas for each Rowannah, which Rowannah shall be current for a period of 15 days from its issue, but shall not cover goods found at a greater distance than five miles from the Northern or Eastern limit of the jurisdiction.

RULE XXV. The maund weight mentioned in the Act as that on which the duty is to be levied is the maund prescribed by Regulation VII. of 1833.

SECTION V.

Extending the Currency of Rowannahs.

RULE XXVI. Persons desirous to deposit or keep Dutiable Articles within the limits of Customs Jurisdiction for a period exceeding that for which the Rowannahs may be current, may obtain an extension of their currency for a period not exceeding eight months, calculated from the date of Original issue, provided they make application to the Collector or the Patrol of the beat, one week before the expiration of the original term of the Rowannah.

RULE XXVII. On such application being made, the Patrol shall ascertain whether the despatch is covered by the Rowannah; and on being satisfied that such is the case, shall endorse the Rowannah and note on its back the place of intended deposit and the period for which its extension is required.

RULE XXVIII. The Rowannah so endorsed shall be sent to the Collector, who will superscribe thereon the period for which the Rowannah is extended, and the date on which the superscription will cease to have effect.

RULE XXIX. The Rowannah thus superscribed, signed and sealed by the Collector, and attested by the Mooshriff, shall be delivered to the applicant, either at the Custom House, or through the Patrol of the beat as may be desired by the applicant.

RULE XXX. The Rowannah, thus extended, shall cover the goods for the period noted in the superscription and no longer.

RULE XXXI. No extension shall be granted for a second period, beyond the full term of eight months from the date of original issue, excepting on clear grounds of necessity, in order to save the owners of the goods from unmerited loss; and then, only, with the permission previously obtained of the Collector of the Division.

SECTION VI.

Illegal Acts involving Penalties.

RULE XXXII. The bringing or keeping of Salt within Customs Jurisdiction, uncovered by a Rowannah, shall subject the offenders to all the penalties prescribed by the Act.

RULE XXXIII. The bringing of Saccharine produce, Sugar or Cleaned Cotton uncovered by a Rowannah, within half a mile of the line of Chokees established under Rule IX. shall subject the offenders to all the penalties prescribed by this Act.

RULE XXXIV. The attempt to bring Dutiable Articles, even when accompanied by a Rowannah, across the line of Chokees, except by an open Chokee, shall subject the offenders to all the penalties prescribed by this Act.

Salt not exceeding five seers uncovered by a Rowannah, found in the possession of a person, shall be liable to confiscation, but the possessor shall not be liable to the penalties prescribed by Section VII. Act XIV. of 1843.

RULE XXXVII. Provided also that Sugar, the produce of British Territory, covered by a certificate of origin, prescribed by Section III. Act XXXII. of 1836, if brought across the line from British Territory, lying on the South and the West of the line shall not be held prohibited.

RULE XXXVIII. Dutiable Articles brought to an open Chokee shall be held to be covered by a Rowannah in duplicate or single as may be requisite, under Rule XX. if they agree with the description in the Rowannah, in all essential particulars, and if there be no greater excess of weight than five per cent of the whole despatch, and if the Rowannah shall be current, and shall not have been previously used for passing other goods.

RULE XXXIX. If the excess in weight be more than five per cent above what is entered in the Rowannah, but not more than 15 per cent of the whole despatch, or if the discrepancy between the goods and the Rowannah be evidently the result of accident or ignorance, and there be no ground for suspecting fraud, a greater penalty than double duties on the whole despatch shall not be awarded by the Commissioner.

RULE XL. Whenever persons shall have become liable to the penalties under the declaration in these Rules, evidently from inadvertence or ignorance, and without any attempt at concealment or fraud, a greater penalty than double duties on the whole despatch shall not be awarded by the Commissioner.

FROM SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL,
TO CAPTAIN G. T. MARSHALL,

Secretary to the College of Fort William.

DATED FORT WILLIAM, 20TH FEBRUARY, 1844.

SIR,

In Mr. Secretary Bushby's letter to your address, dated the 16th of January 1843, it was stated to you that the Hon'ble the Deputy Governor entertained the most confident expectation that the year then commenced would be distinguished by great attainments in the Languages on the part of the Students lately arrived, and by the most exemplary good conduct. They would not, His Honor hoped, content themselves with acquiring merely that moderate competency in two languages, which is sufficient to obtain a Certificate of qualification for the Public Service, but would aim at a degree of proficiency which would entitle them to Honors and Rewards.

2. These expectations the Deputy Governor is gratified to find have not been disappointed. In the Report on the character and attainments of the Students who have been declared qualified for the Public Service, the conduct of every one, without exception, is pronounced to have been "satisfactory," and by several of them Honors and Rewards have been obtained for diligence and high proficiency.

3. Amongst the Students who have thus distinguished themselves in so praiseworthy a manner, the Deputy Governor has the satisfaction of noticing Mr. W. S. Seton Karr, Mr. J. E. L. Brandreth, Mr. V. H. Schaleh, Mr. J. R. Hutchinson, Mr. E. Sandys, and Mr. R. N. Cust, as having obtained Rewards, and Mr. W. J. Bramly, Mr. A. A. Swinton, and Mr. H. Davidson, as having passed in a third language. Mr. W. S. Seton Karr, the Deputy Governor observes, is the most distinguished, having obtained, besides other prizes, a Degree of Honor, which had not been awarded to any Student for a period of 19 years.

4. The Deputy Governor has great satisfaction in contemplating these results. He regards them as reflecting the highest credit on the Students themselves, and as holding out the promise, through their means, of future benefit to the country.

5. In bidding the Students who have left Collégé farewell, His Honor begs them not to forget how important it is both to their efficiency as Public Officers, and to the welfare of the Native community, not only to keep up but to improve still further the knowledge of the languages which they have acquired, and so important is it considered in every Department to be able to communicate freely with all classes, that he would strongly recommend every Servant of the Government who looks to advancement, to be always prepared to prove his qualifications in this respect. His Honor begs them also to remember that they are about to be placed in situations involving high responsibilities, and he trusts that throughout the whole of their career, their Conduct will be marked by an earnest desire to discharge with fidelity their duty to the Government which they serve, and to promote to the utmost of their power, wherever they may be placed, the happiness and prosperity of the people committed to their charge.

6. The Deputy Governor desires me to add, that he duly appreciates your exertions, and those of Major Ouseley, in promoting the results of the past year, and He trusts that the present will prove equally satisfactory.

I have, &c.,

OVERLAND PRE-PAID LETTERS.

NOTICE.—With reference to the system of optional pre-payment of British Postage in India, upon Letters for places within the United Kingdom of Great Britain, which will come into operation on the 1st of the ensuing month of March, the following rates of Postage will be levied, namely,

Not exceeding $\frac{1}{2}$ an ounce, 8 Annas,... (1 Shilling)
Above $\frac{1}{2}$, and not exceeding 1 ounce,
1 Rupee, ... (2 Shillings)
Above 1, and not exceeding 2 ounces,
2 Rupees, ... (4 Shillings)
Above 2, and not exceeding 3 ounces,
3 Rupees, ... (6 Shillings)
And so on, increasing 1 Rupee, ... (2 Shillings)
for every additional ounce, or fraction of the ounce.

As 5 ounces is the nearest integral of English weight to 12 Tolas, the maximum weight allowed for transmission by Dawk, it is indispensable that letters be not allowed to exceed that weight, to prevent the inconvenience of their being refused at the Post Office.

The option of pre-paying the British Postage is exclusively, limited to Letters transmitted in the Mails sent via Southampton, and such letters must bear the following superscription for the guidance of the Post Office Receivers, viz.

"BRITISH POSTAGE PRE-PAID,

"Via Southampton."

Letters not for places, within the United Kingdom of Great Britain, or which may not require to pass through the English Post Office, to their ulterior destinations, will, as heretofore, be subject to Foreign Steamer, or Red Sea Postage, precisely at the same rates as those fixed for the levy of British pre-paid Postage.

British and Foreign Steamer, or Red Sea Postages, are exclusive of the India ordinary Inland Postage.

It is strongly recommended, both for the convenience of the individuals bringing the letters, and of the Receivers at the Post Office, that Letters intended to be pre-paid should be accompanied by separate receipts, or be entered separately from other descriptions of letters in the Sender's Dawk Receipt Books.

N. B.—These Rules, until further orders, are to apply only, to letters forwarded via Bombay, not to letters transmitted hence by the Steamers Ben-tinck and Hindostan.

"As British weights may not be generally available to the Public, for regulating the weight of their correspondence, the following scheme for using Coins of the Indian Currency, for that purpose, will be found to afford a very close approximation to ounce and half ounce weights.

5TH FEBRUARY, 1844.

Notice is hereby given, that a Light is exhibited from the Flag Staff at Cochin, from sunset to sunrise. The height of the Light when exhibited from the Mast-head is 114 feet above the Level of the Sea, but when the Top Mast is struck (during the South West Monsoon,) the Light is then 62 feet above the Level of the Sea—Vessels coming to an anchor at night, should bring the Light to bear E. by N. Good anchorage is found in from 5 to 4½ fathoms water, but during the South West Monsoon Vessels should not anchor in less than 6 fathoms as there is then a heavy Sea rolling in on the Coast.
